Incoming:

Turkey is becoming one of the World's most desired destinations for congresses, conferences, conventions, meetings and incentive groups as it is today for cultural, religious tours and resort holidays. The country's association with multinational meetings, however, has a long and colorful history. At the geographical gateway between East and West, Turkey has for centuries been host to get-to-gathers of merchants, adventures, artists, scientists, and philosophers for having some pleasant time while journeying between Europe and Asia. It was here that the Silk Road ended, and here too, that the arts and sciences of East and West merged to produce layer upon layer of extraordinary cultures and civilizations.

Turkey has a rich cultural heritage. This vast land was former home to many great empires; each left its cultural legacy on the architecture, the art and over all every part of today's civilization. With 600 years of imperial rule, the Ottoman Empire was one of the long-lasting empires of all, and its background has left a benefaction of palaces, pavilions, imperial mosques, great monumental fountains and other architectural treasures. Turkish hospitality is known for being genuine and warm. The people are friendly, kind to strangers, sympathetic and always ready to help. Turkey, the gateway between Europe and Asia is also the gateway into a world of exciting Possibilities. Today, Turkey is excellently qualified to handle groups and meeting of all sorts and sizes in comfort and style. With wide choices of excellent accommodations, endless possibilities of sightseeing in a living history and colorful culture enhanced by natural beauty: Turkey is well quipped for your clients. Go Travel Turkey will always be at your disposal to handle all the services for a resounding success.
